MD Council gets aid on road costs

M. D. Sturgeon Council has been informed that Imperial Oil is prepared to contribute roughly $11,000 to the municipality towards the 1971 cost of maintenance and oiling of the two roads leading to the Esso Chemical fertilizer plants at Redwater. The amount represents about one-third of the total cost of maintenance on East Gibbons road and the Fort Saskatchewan to East Gibbons road.

Mr. R. W. Hodgson, manager of the Redwater plants and assistants Messrs. W. R. Musgrove and I. J. Boyd met with M. D. Council on December 16th. Mr. Hodgson reported that plant representatives had previously met with the County of Thirldorf who were not prepared to share or assist in any way with the maintenance of these roads. Nor was the County receptive to the suggestion that they participate under section 118.1 of the Municipal Government Act.

Council gave three readings to a by-law providing for grants for the year 1971 to 14 4-H clubs within the municipality at the rate of $1.00 per member, totalling $551.00. Carl Royan, Recreation Director attended the meeting and submitted a written report on the Rec. Board's activities, together with their recommendations for certain organizational and operational expenses.

A motion carried authorizing council to have private lanes snow plowed at no cost to the property owners, when a form requesting such service and providing right of entry and general release of all demands and claims on the municipality, is signed by the owner.

Councillor Flynn and Secretary Nobert were authorized to meet with Mr. and Mrs. Paul Cote relative to the purchase of the south 80 acres of the existing 400 acres at the Cardiff maintenance grounds. Authorization including taking an option on the purchase for sanitary land fill site.

Three equipment purchases were approved: one 48-foot double drum sheep foot packer for $500 on the 1972 capital expenditure for public works; a cab and other accessories per the R. Angus Company quotation for the municipality's caterpillar motor scraper; four two-way radios for the approximate price of $220 per unit.

John McDonnell of Sturgeon School Board attended the meeting on the matter of road signs and permission was given for school signs at the following locations: N/N.W. 19054-27-4; N/N.E. 24-58-4; E/N.E. 15-55-27-4 and S/S.E. 15-25-4. Decision on the Village of Gibbons proposed annexation of 126.21 acres of land from the municipality was tabled pending further information from the Edmonton Regional Planning Commission.

Reeve Van De Walle and Councillors Kluthe and Flynn attended the Hearing on the Edmonton Regional

Qualified guest will speak on Montessori school

St. Albert residents interested in the establishment of a Montessori school in St. Albert are invited to attend a meeting Monday evening (January 17th) at the home of Mrs. Denise Selann at 57 Broadview Crescent.

A series of weekly meetings has been planned in order to give people a clear understanding of the Montessori method of teaching young children. Twelve persons attended last week and preliminary plans for a location, financing and furnishing the school were also discussed.

Miss Mooney Sherman of the Centennial Montessori school will speak to the meeting and show materials used as well as demonstrate techniques and methods of teaching. Miss Sherman is very well qualified and will be able to answer questions on all aspects of the Montessori method.

Anyone planning to attend is requested to telephone Mrs. Peter Smerdon at 599-8975 in advance of Monday's meeting.

The St. Albert Kinettes have donated a respirator and a croupette to St. Albert Hospital, at an outlay of approximately $800. Clarence Grosse of the hospital staff was most happy to demonstrate the equipment when Sharon McMaster, service chairman and Betty Daley, president, made the presentation. The equipment is much needed due to the high incidence of respiratory diseases the hospital has been coping with. The day before Christmas Betty, Sharon and Gall McKeloe visited the hospital to wish the patients a Merry Christmas in the form of a boutinierre for each, from the Kinettes. At the time the hospital opened the Kinettes furnished a private room, and the club takes a continuing interest in supporting the hospital.

No Site In Sight

Following advice from the provincial department of environment that they are not prepared to approve the Cardiff site for use by the Town of St. Albert for garbage disposal, councillors Kambouris and Hudson were appointed to a committee for further negotiations with M. D. Sturgeon, and the situation at present means the town is still without a site.

Day Care Centre

Early next week St. Albert residents will be receiving a questionnaire regarding the need of a day care centre here. Early last fall two local women, June Kerrison and Edith Duckering felt that there was such a need and were instrumental in setting up an interim committee to investigate ways and means of establishing such a centre. Nine members, representing a broad cross-section of the community agreed to serve on the committee: Dr. James Howell of Sturgeon Health Unit, Muriel Martin asst. supt. of School District #3, Myrna Fyfe of the Help Society, Pat Prymac, District Home Economist for M. D. Sturgeon, Peg Humbert of the United Church Women, Rev. Len Musto, Local Chamber plans big night

FATHER UBALDO DUCHESNEAU

this is the night the Chamber has a ball each year. Dress is optional and tickets may be purchased in advance from Gerry Belke at Emery's Pipe Shop, or at the door.

The St. Albert and District Chamber of Commerce is holding the annual "Citizen of the Year" night Saturday evening (January 15) at the Club Mocambo.

As in recent years, the popular event takes the form of a reception and dinner dance, beginning at 6:30. St. Albert's Citizen of the Year for 1972 is Father Ubaldo Duchesneau, who will be introduced by Mr. Leon Tellier.

Since taking over this project the Chamber has named four "citizens", Dr. Wm. Cuts, Lorraine Moore, Marcel deChamplain and Father Duchesneau. They invite nominations from residents and organizations which are turned over to an independent panel of judges who select the winner.

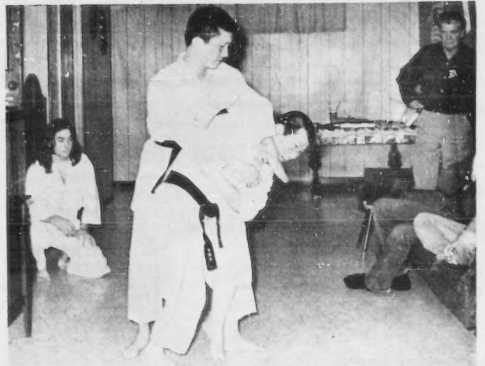

While ordinarily a serious-minded organization handling weighty matters,

Two men born and raised in Korea, and presently in St. Albert, must be numbered among our more interesting residents. Mr. Jae Song and Mr. Joseph Kim are fairly new to Canada and are teaching the Hapkado and Judo self defence methods.

Joe Song holds a 3rd dan in black belt in the martial art of Yawara, or Hapkado, which is the best form of self defence known. Not a very well-known sport, it originated in the Far East and has few accomplished adherents. With knowledge of the technique one can defend himself against both Karate and Judo. Six months of instruction in the art can put the pupil in the position that no one not versed in it will be able to touch him.

Mr. Kim has his 2nd dan in black belt in the art of Judo. Residents who are interested in the classes these men teach may get further information by telephoning Roger Thorndarson at 599-8225, or Joseph Kim at 599-4805.

Experts from Korea bring Hapkado - Judo

Joseph Kim at right attempts to throw Jae Song with a usually effective Judo throw, which if completed, would have broken Mr. Kim's own neck. Mr. Song, who broke the throw is adept at the Martial Art of Yawara, or "Hapkado". Judo pupil George Coward kneels at left, while Mr. Thorndarson watches at right. In case you have a curious nature, the nondescript legs are attached to Bob Colas of the Gazette staff. Photo was taken Monday evening in the rumpus room of the Thorndarson home on Gillian Crescent.

people need people

by Mona Acker,
PSS Director,
Town of St. Albert.

As a tax paying resident of St. Albert and Alberta, do you know where our tax dollars go? Yes, we can see our wide, tree lined streets and roads and our schools, but what has happened to the dollars we pay for social services? Is St. Albert getting its fair share from the province? Let's see.

Take a town such as Medicine Hat. It is not much larger than St. Albert. What do they have? They have a family counselling service, a head start kindergarten program, a day care centre, a volunteer service bureau, and a drop in social and recreational club for senior citizens. Why don't we have such services? Maybe we don't need these programs, but maybe we do.

A recent report states that 12% of our children in Alberta need special attention to help them keep up in school even though their intelligence is normal. Do you have any neighbours or friends whose marriage has broken up? Would they have stayed together if counselling was available right here in our Town? Is vandalism or drug taking a problem in St. Albert? I would certainly like to know. Would you?

The Preventive Social Services program in St. Albert is paid for by your tax dollars. What is it going for you? Nothing unless you make it work. So far it has been shown that we can obtain money from the Provincial Government. We have a Homemaker Service, funded partly by the Town and partly by the province as a St. Albert PSS project. This year they have helped families that may have broken up or left the children to fend for themselves while the mother was ill or in hospital. The family pays what it can afford. The citizens of St. Albert run the show through an advisory committee of ten interested and concerned people. For it to be effective, we must know your needs.

Should St. Albert have a single parents club, information and referral service, or a summer day camp? What do you think? If you have a problem or a solution, if you need help, or are able to give it, we want to hear from you. I can help you start a program and help arrange financing if necessary.

Call me, Mona Acker, Preventive Social Services Director at 599-6601 and watch for this column the first week of every month.

St. Albert to be well represented at PSS conference

Preventive Social Services Boards, Committees, and Directors have scheduled their annual conference for January 14 and 15, 1972 at Lac La Riche. They have invited Councillors, Mayors and Reeves and Secretary-Treasurers from the five P.S.S. areas concerned in northeastern Alberta. In addition, the M. D. of Sturgeon Town of Redwater and County and Village of Thorhild have been invited.

St. Albert will be represented by Mayor and Mrs. Ray Gibbon, Councillor and Mrs. Rene Kambouroff, Councillor Rod Thronson, P.S.S. Director Mona Acker and board members Rich Bailey, Eileen Alberts, Rev. Len Musto, Jane Nelson, Ron Counce, Heunie Stibbe, Dave Thomas and Barbara Munro.

The five areas with Preventive Social Services programs are St. Albert, Athabasca, Westlock, Barrhead and Fort McMurray. Guest speakers will include the Hon. Nell Crawford, Minister of Health and Social Development on "How the P. C. Govt. Views P.S.S." and Mrs. Thelma Scambler, Dept. of Health and Social Development on "Prevention in the '70's".

The P.S.S. program is a locally controlled program to involve people in looking at their community and trying to make it a better place to live. It is mainly concerned with the needed social services and somewhat with leisure time activities. It can provide money to stimulate groups and individuals to start necessary programs such as day care for centres, drop-in centres, pre-school and kindergartens, counselling facilities, employment bureaus, etc.

In St. Albert there is a Homemaker Service which provides a mother substitute in times of crises for a family. It can also give part time help to an aged or incapacitated person in their own home to help him be independent. A committee of interested people has been formed to look into the need for a centre to care for children of working mothers and also provide an enrichment program. If their survey shows that there will be enough children, the committee will then plan this centre.

The conference will focus on what can be done in any community and what is being done in Alberta in prevention of social problems.

Meat packer enters agreement

Nippon Reizo K.K., a major cold storage and food manufacturing company, has agreed to a tie-up with Canada Packers Limited, Toronto, to undertake sales of the Canadian firm's products in Japan and swap food processing technologies. According to Nippon Reizo, it plans to start importing and marketing Canada Packers mainstay products - frozen pork, ham, sausage, bacon and dairy products. The company has already introduced and sold the Canadian firm's frozen vegetables.

Plans for the constituency

For God's Sake

"For God's sake send help now!" This was the urgent appeal from the Refugee and World Service Committee of the Presbyterian Church to members across Canada to help. The immediate situation was relief for victims of the India-Pakistan War.

As a tangible expression of their concern and as a witness to the Christmas message—"Glory to God in the highest and on earth peace, good will toward men"—the Brasiee Presbyterian Congregation answered the call for aid. The offerings of the special Christmas Day Service in the amount of $2.87 were given to this project.

The concern of many members of the congregation for the inhuman suffering of hundreds of thousands and for the close to ten million refugees was intense. This was measured in part by the fact that a number of the young people donated a good percentage of their babysitting earnings of the preceding several weeks.

The amount given in St.
Albert will join about $25,000.00 given by other Canadian Presbyterian congregations, and this in turn will form part of the almost one half million dollars donated through the Churches in Canada. Among other urgent needs, this money will be used to obtain roofing for huts and blankets for returning refugees, as well as to purchase medicine for cholera and basic food supplies.

"The war is now over but the suffering and need remains. "For God's Sake", which is really for the sake of his children everywhere,
we must care," says Rev.
Gordon.

to the Editor Snowmobiles

Dear Sir:

It seems to me that the newly-elected Town Council has shown a lack of concern about a serious problem that is growing worse in St. Albert - the problem of controlling snowmobiles.

Snowmobiles have become a problem throughout Alberta, where it is now estimated that there are 60,000 of these machines. One hundred and fifteen Canadians died in 1971 as a result of snowmobile accidents as against 65 in 1969. Six people were killed during the New Year weekend and eight the following weekend. It is not clear whether these alarming figures are related to the inherent dangerous nature of the machines or to lack of supervision.

Many people, like myself, are also becoming concerned with the high noise levels created by snowmobiles in St. Albert each evening and each weekend. The by-laws apparently allows snowmobiles to operate until 11:00 p.m., which I think is far too late. The majority is paying too high a price for the pleasure of the minority. According to the Gazette, Mayor Gibson has indicated that the RCMP is having difficulty enforcing the by-law. Consideration should be given to restricting the operation of snowmobiles to daylight hours. Policing would be cheaper, fewer accidents would occur and our children would get their sleep.

I am told that a number of Councilors have snowmobiles, and I wonder if that is why the St. Albert council is so tolerant. Maybe none of the councilors live near the Sturgeon River, which has, along with adjoining private property, become a drag strip for snowmobiles. If the council members observed the activities a few evenings and weekends and had to put up with the noise, they might appreciate that controls are required, and now.

Perhaps the practical solution for the moment would be for council to vote funds for ear plugs. These could be distributed to those of us who live near the river, the patients in the Sturgeon Hospital, and anyone else who complains. Then those councilors with snowmobiles could go scooting around on their machines with a clear conscience and not give it another thought.

Healthy Centers?

Stan Ried's "Rural Route" article on page 48 of the December 31 issue of the Edmonton Journal exudes optimism but overlooks reality.

His reference to Alberta's "healthier" centres not howling gloom and his assurance that "repeated checks .. failed to uncover .. citizens walking around hungry, dressed in rags, with nothing on their heads" is a classic example of irresponsible reporting.

Federal and Provincial governments have, over the past twenty odd years, been pursuing a policy of rural depopulation that is being reflected in the painful deterioration of a great many rural communities.

Farmers have methodically been induced to use credit to expand, to produce more for less, to become more efficient, to cannibalize their neighbors. . . . while chasing the mirage of a "viable farm unit".

As the rural population is thinned out in the process naturally the smaller centers are the first to feel the pinch. Ironically, their demise is the larger rural centers' gain but for how long?

How long before Stan Reid's "healthier" centers will become nothing more than corporate owned shopping complexes that will supply the few remaining "viable" farmers with everything from box lunches to bulldozers . . . under contract?

Huge profits are being taken by Canada's food industry, but they are taken after the produce leaves the farm gate.

Must we keep our heads in the sand and wait until we see "citizens walking around hungry, dressed in rags, with nothing on their heads" before we start pressuring governments to take meaningful remedial action?

I am Yours truly,
William (Bill) Dascavich.

AROUND TOWN

A warm welcome is extended to new residents and interested non-members to attend the regular monthly meeting of the Anglican Church Women on Monday, January 17th at the home of Eva Kirsilake, 57 Glenhaven Crescent. The meeting begins at 8 p.m.

The Hon. Marcel Lambert, Member of Parliament for Edmonton West, the federal riding which includes St. Albert, constantly carries through his program of stimulating the interest of students in how the Canadian system of government works. During December he visited Sir Alexander Mackenzie school where the photographer caught him addressing the students, and Father Jan, where he is seen involved in discussion period following his talk. At Father Jan school he was introduced by M.L.A. Ernie Jamison, who clearly has some kinks to iron out in his camera techniques.

Comets blow game in last minute

At the end of a very slow moving first period in St. Albert last Friday, Winterburn pulled ahead of the Comets 3-0 with a goal by D. Klassen and two by W. Littlechild.

Scoring in the second period was held to one goal each, making the score 4-1. W. Littlechild popped in his third goal early in the period followed 20 seconds later by D. Bell's goal for St. Albert.

Play in the third period looked up for St. Albert with goals by Laplante, Read and Cassidy, in a span of 3:45 minutes of the period. Comets were set back once more when Winterburn scored at the 7:40 mark to make it 5-4 in favor of the Tomahawks. Two quick goals by Read and Pugliese put St. Albert in front 6-5. But to no avail as Winterburn bounced back in the last 40 seconds with two unanswered goals by Spencer and W. Klassen to make the final score 7-6 for the Tomahawks.

The game could have gone either way for both teams as could be judged from the score, but the Comets let up for the last 40 seconds and it cost them the game.

The next home game for the Comets is Friday, Jan. 21 at 8:00 against the same Winterburn team, so fans can expect some good hockey and fast moving action.

Coward cools teachers

Led by George Coward in goal Premier Esso of the Mens' League tied the Teachers Esso 4-4 on Jan. 6. Coward playing great positional hockey held the high scoring Teachers down to 4 goals.

The Teachers got a goal from R. Chaput two from F. Hoerber and a penalty shot goal from Father Jolly. Scoring for Premier was A. Beauchamp, B. Plinder, D. Moxil and Buns Schwartz.

Action slides by Winterburns goalie but St. Albert always has a man in front

Namoo Cubes Morinville

Sunday at 9:00 in Morinville the Morinville Majesticks took on Namoo in Senior B. Hockey.

Namoo took an early 3-0 lead on goals by T. Powell, T. Crozier and R. Cresswell and never looked back. The second period proved to be more closely matched for the two clubs, the score being narrowed down to 6-2, Dale Hagaooren proved to be the big gun for Namoo by potting a Hat Trick all in that one period.

Third period action paved the way for four more Namoo goals on shots from R. Crozier, R. Cresswell and two from Reg Durisson.

The final score added up to 10-3 in favour of Namoo and scoring for Morinville were Guy Chabforre, Brian Telford and O' Neill Chevalier.

Wallis leads Sabres

Wallis opened the scoring for the Sabres at 5:30 of the first period and was followed by C. Regimbald and D. Reinhold to make the score 3-0 for the Sabres over the Wildcats on Tuesday night here in St. Albert.

The second period saw the Sabres pull out in front 6-1 with Reinhold getting his second goal and followed by Bruens, G. Ferguson, Gary Winquist shutout bid was spoiled at 18:00 mark

Hardwork in store for Cats

The Wildcat midget team played their first game under George Coward in Stony Plain on January 7. Although the score was 6-1 in favour of the Stony Plain Falcons that was no indication of St. Albert's play.

St. Albert opened the scoring at 4:05 of the second period but in a span of eight minutes Stony pulled out in front by a score of 5-1. The Wildcat's lack of practice and drills showed up as it has in the past.

Coward soon hopes to have this problem under control with lots of practice time and a great percentage of the ice time going to tasking.

With a new coach and new hope the Wildcats could prove to be a tough and strong team by the time playoffs roll around.

You will notice that in some total points and number of games played vary from team to team. This is because the League Commisgame sheet to the commissioner otherwise points will not be awarded whether a win or tie.

Chiefs have ups and downs

St. Albert's representative bantam team, the Fire Chiefs, lost to Barrehead 6-3 in the arena last Thursday in a cleanly-played game.

The Chiefs, in last place in the Edmonton Rural Hockey League were ahead briefly in the first period when Lloyd Olson Slick handled his way around the Barrehead defence for an unassisted goal.

Barrehead tied it up and was ahead 2-1 by the end of the period, due largely to some sloppy work by the St. Albert defence.

The Chiefs tied the game 3-3 in the second. Tom Parayko scored unassisted and Lorie Koschak got the other, with assist going to Chris Krupa and Bob Longpre. This line, thrown together just before the game, was outstanding throughout.

However, Barrehead got two quick goals late in the period and wrapped up the scoring with a power-play marked with less than a minute left in the third period.

Steve Foreman, on loan from Sadoway of the bantam house league, played well in goal for the Chiefs while Chris Hoffart and Terry Ledy — one of the most improved players in the league — were strong on defence.

The officiating of Al Alain and Don Fender was the best this year, drawing praise from even such a jaundiced observer as Chiefs coach Doug Millroy.

The quality of refereeing at all levels is constantly under criticism and it's good to see a well-handled game — improved hockey for the player, the spectator and no doubt makes the officials feel better, too.

The Chiefs played at Fort Saskatchewan Sunday and went down 5-1 in a game notable for two things: An inexplicable lapse by the Chiefs for nine minutes in the second period and some unbelievable refereeing.

Fortunately, the refereeing didn't hurt the Chiefs — the club deserved to lose.

The first period ended 1-1 and was evenly played. Greg Thibert scored for St. Albert with Parayko getting an assist. Although he didn't appear on the scoresheet, Rod Gouchay had a hand in the score, delivering a crushing body check to take a Fort Saskatchewan player out of the play.

In the second period the game moved along at a fast pace until 1:11 when Fort Saskatchewan scored. With that goal, the Chiefs played hockey not worthy of a mite team and the Fort increased the count to 5-1 before the period ended.

Millroy put on a little display in the dressing room as he gave the club a tongue lashing. It worked. In the scoresheet third period, the Chiefs had most of the play, but couldn't find the net.

Comets on track

Sunday night Comets travelled to Sherwood Park to take on the League-Leading Barons and beat them 8-7. Scoring for St. Albert were J. Read and T. Dube with two each, while J. Cassidy, D. Bell, A. Laplante and Captain Fred Hesse each picked up one goal.

The Comets were never behind in the game and displayed good team work and puck control, which could take them all the way this year.

Morinville Peewees at Best

Last Saturday in Morinville the Morinville Peewees played host to the Bon Accord Peewees. But only being host socially beat Bon Accord 6-4 in one of the best games they played so far this year.

As I See It

I have never been a supporter of Women's Liberation, but I do agree that it is nobody's business what a woman's marital status is. Quietly women have begun to erase "Miss" and "Mrs" from national usage.

Many women, single, married, widowed or divorced, happily report that the new neutral monosyllable is slowly creeping into the vocabulary of the business world. It is "Ms" (pronounced Miss'). Letters from corporations, public relations firms, government offices and publishers are increasingly using "Ms" on letterheads.

In this modern world of equal opportunity and responsibilities for man and woman in the business world why should a woman be called "Miss or Mrs"? It only defines her exclusively in terms of her relationship with men. But . . . Mr. is never defined as single or married in the business or social world.

A puritan society has placed a ridiculous social value on a wedding ring. Your stock goes up because you've caught a man, according to some social register and etiquette expert writers, such as Emily Post and other colleagues in the same business.

At the present time, a Republican representative, Bella Abzug, in the United States Congress, has introduced a bill to prohibit the federal government from designating marital status in any records, correspondence, certificates, or documents. "There is absolutely no justification for such idle curiosity about women" said Rep. Abzug". It is not too much to ask that women be considered as individuals "not as wives of individuals".

Today in Austria there is a rule that all women over 18 years in government offices must be called "Frau" - this eliminating speculation over marital status. In France its custom, not law, that requires all older women to be addressed as "Madame", no matter what their marital status.

In this country, however, acceptance of "Ms" has met with some resistance and unfavorable comments.

Perhaps the most outspoken critic the authority, Amy Vanderbilt, who prefers to be addressed as Miss Vanderbilt or as Mrs. Curtis B. Keller finds such argument grossly improper. AS I SEE IT: From a practical point of view, what difference does it make to the ability, the personality, the value of an individual on the job, or the validity of any record file if the name pre-recorded file if the name is prefaced by Miss or Mrs. Madame, Frau, Senorita or Senora?"

If a man . . . Just plain Mr. is accepted without question, by the entire corps of the ladder of society from the janitor to the Prime Minister. Be HE . . . a bachelor, a married man or a grandfather with 70 great grandchildren who has been married four times. So much for a male oriented society left over from a puritan age, when a marriage contract and a wedding ring was the ultimate goal of every girl over 16 years.

Today, a woman is accepted everywhere on her own merit as an individual. But, with or without the Miss or Mrs. a woman must still be a lady and be feminine if she wants the respect and admiration of men. Otherwise she will never be acceptable to men and society as a whole.

Create your own colorful wall hangings or fabric designs by learning the art of batik. Above, a student applies melted wax to cloth before dipping the material into dye vats. The hows and whys of batik will be taught in St. Albert at a two-day workshop to be held in the Arts Centre January 22 and 23.

Local Centre offers course in ancient art of batik

Why not try something new... colorful, imaginative and decorative to beat the winter doldrums that usually set in after the holiday season?

It's the ancient art of Batik and after a weekend workshop you'll be able to go ahead on your own whenever the mood hits. It's a chance to turn your own ideas into bright conversation pieces such as wall hangings or unique fabric designs for shirts, dresses etc.

The two-day batik workshop, sponsored by the St. Albert Arts and Crafts Guild will be held at the Arts Centre, Saturday, Jan. 22 from one to five p.m., and seven to 10 p.m., and Sunday, Jan. 23rd from one to five p.m. and seven to 10 p.m., a total of 14 hours.

Instructors for the workshop will be Les and Jackie Graff, both well-known Alberta artists. Mr. and Mrs. Graff make their home in St. Albert and have impressive backgrounds in instructing both adults and children in the visual arts and crafts.

Les Graff is supervisor of the Arts and Crafts division of the Alberta Government and as well as teaching a variety of other arts and crafts he has researched and taught batik specifically since 1965.

If you're wondering exactly what batik is, according to an information sheet provided by Mr. Graff, it's a "craft started as early as the 12th century in Persia or India. The craft is best suited for one of a kind production or limited quantities or repeating textile design. The batik artist thinks in terms of large design shapes, border lines, texture and limited color. The cracking of the wax resist causes a veining or marbling effect throughout the entire surface". The method is not unlike the traditional art of painting Easter eggs.

Cost of the workshop is $10 and most of the materials will be provided. Those who register will be asked to bring a pair of rubber gloves, two yards, 24 inch wide unsized cotton such as cotton sacking or unbleached medium muslin - (the cloth must be washed before using); two 2B pencils and a flat house-painting type brush.

Students having old irons or hot plates are also asked to bring them along.

To register for the workshop or for additional information call Mrs. Karen Grant, 599-8524. Deadline for registration is Monday, Jan. 17th. The class is limited to 24 students. Should enrolment fall short of the required number, the workshop will be cancelled and registration fees will be refunded.

Library

New hours are now in effect; the St. Albert Library is open from 3 - 9 p.m. Monday through Friday. Saturday hours are from 10 a.m. till 5 p.m.

Local five year olds will be happy to know that the very popular story hour is returning to the library Jan. 18th. Registrations will be taken on that day at 10 a.m. The group will be limited to 25 five year olds, and mothers are asked to register their youngsters in person. Joyce Stedebauer and Hazel Nixon will again be conducting the one hour program of stories and art every Tuesday morning from 10 - 11.

The report on the Status of Women has been in the local library since March... and has never been taken out! Local women's lib fans may wish to have a look at this report next time they are in the library.

A new arrival which should be of interest to all concerned citizens is the Real Poverty Report.

The library offers many services to the public; the lecture room, equipped with a large coffee urn, is available for meetings, bookings should be made well in advance.

A 16 m.m. movie projector is available, and responsible parties are invited to make use of this facility at the library.

The St. Albert Library has extended its services in a number of ways for the 1972 year. Of major importance is the arrangement under which the library will work with libraries in both of St. Albert's school districts. The Board has elected Ardis Kamra to the post of liaison officer for this program who is eminently well qualified and brings considerable experience to the new position.

The board also announces this week that a photo copy service is now available at the library and the extended hours which they have been working towards for some time are now in effect. The library is now open Monday through Fridays from 3 p.m. until 9 and Saturdays from one o'clock till five.

Most of the books on recent best-seller fiction lists are available at the library, as well as some reports of current interest, including the Herb Gray report on foreign ownership, the Real Poverty Report and the Report of the Royal Commission on the status of women. At their December meeting the library board elected Bob Green as chairman; Peter Wood, vice-chairman; Anna Hapchyn and Rosemary Michie, publicity and Ardis Kamra, liaison with school libraries. Anna Hesse is secretary and Frank Dolphin a board member.

MR. AND MRS. ERNEST DUPUIS.

Ernest Dupuis, son of Mr. J. B. Dupuis, and Donna-Maria Martel, daughter of Mrs. A. R. Martel and the late Mr. Alfred Raoul Martel, were married recently in a private ceremony conducted by the Rev. Father George Henri Primeau, all of Morinville. The bride wore an heirloom gown of white Spanish lace and pure silk sheer, all hand sewn, with matching mantilla veil supported by a Spanish comb. She carried unadorned white Gardenias. The couple's only attendants were Miss Marcia Dianne Martel, sister of the bride and Mr. Leo Dupuis, brother of the groom. The newlyweds are making their home in Edmonton.

Simpson students are pleased with support of ambitious project

The response of St. Albert residents to projects of the students at Sir George Simpson school has been such that the young people are nearing the half way mark in their efforts to raise their share of the money needed for a summer project in Montreal.

Twenty-one students of the school are planning to participate in a pilot project at Laval University, under which they would get an intensive course in oral French for one month, aimed at giving them the equivalent of one - three years in the regular school program here. Following this course they would spend a further week in Montreal and one in Ottawa, before returning home.

On Friday the school is sponsoring a popular film "The Merry World of Leopold Z", open to all local children at an admission charge of ten cents. Later on they will arrange another sale of wood carvings of the Canadiana Crest by local Indian artists, which proved very popular.

Boys and girls are also available for babysitting and all types of odd jobs right through till the end of June. Arrangements for hiring these students can be made by telephoning 599-3606 - 599-8075 or 599-6427.

Magazine sales by the students were also well received by St. Albert residents, netting some $400 for the fund.

Health Unit finds Personnel idea is working well

Four years ago Sturgeon Health Unit faced a dilemma common to many public health agencies: How to find enough time for many new activities added to those formerly considered the function of public health nursing, and at the same time maintain the old ones.

At that time the Sturgeon Health unit decided to try using a short-trained worker to take over some of the jobs that could be safely done by a worker with less expertise than a public health nurse. Such a woman would receive on-the-job training and would be directly responsible to the Unit's Supervisor of Nursing. However she would work closely with the Staff Nurse as a "Health Assistant".

Initially, criteria were drawn up, stating what tasks or activities could be safely handed over to a health assistant. Routine screening procedures for vision and hearing in the schools, clinic management and some clerical tasks comprise the major activities that meet these requirements. A surprising amount of professional nursing time is released by the health assistant taking over the routine screening in the schools. They are not encountering any problems with over - or under - referral to the public health nurse which was thought might be the case.

Our health unit has a large region to service geographically and we conduct many busy well baby clinics. In the area of clinic management, the health assistant is proving herself invaluable. As one of the goals is to improve the quality of service offered in the rural areas, an essential for bringing this service up to par is to have another person attend clinic besides the nurse. This arrangement gives the public health nurse more time to spend with mothers counselling and giving advice on child care. The health assistant must be able in the schools and clinics; she must like and be interested in people, particularly children. Maturity and an ability to identify with the mothers attending clinic are essential.

Having established the need for and the effectiveness of having a health assistant on our staff the unit then decided they needed more workers of this kind to extend the service throughout the health unit area. Since budget restrictions prevented us from hiring additional health assistants, recruitment of a volunteer corps provided the only solution.

A search for volunteers was undertaken and response was good. Sixteen women from various centers throughout the area offered their services. These women, all housewives, had a variety of experience and skill to offer and were able to give one day a week to volunteer service. In this way it is hoped to be able to provide higher quality care in areas by having a volunteer worker resident in the community.

As a preliminary to "On the Job" training, workshops of one day duration were held to introduce volunteers to some basic concepts of preventive health care and screening techniques.

Up to this point, one volunteer has dropped out due to family responsibilities. Another, having displayed a n interest in and an aptitude for working with preschool children is now helping at screening clinics for four year olds.

Fish and Game strongly urges stripmining control

In a brief submitted to the provincial government, the St. Albert and District Fish and Game Association came out strongly in support of limiting the strip mining operations in the province.

The local Fish and Game has been actively campaigning for surface mining legislation for a number of years. In a 1989 public education project, the local association presented a film on surface mining to seven Edmonton high schools and addressed eight local clubs and organizations on the subject.

A number of resolutions, proposed by the St. Albert Fish and Game, have been adopted by the Alberta Association and Don Hayden, president of the St. Albert group said the local members are very pleased that this much needed legislation will finally come about.

Asked to outline some essential objectives for mining control in Alberta, Mr. Hayden said that first we must accept that any surface mine in our foothill and mountain country is and will be an "ecological disaster area." He added that it is not possible to reclaim a mountain that is blasted and bulldozed, or a foothill with the side cut away.

"A strip mine is an irreparable, one-time use of that land, and the resulting eyesore will out-live all of us," Mr. Hayden added that it is generally accepted that any surface mine destroys four times the actual mine area.

Members of the local Fish and Game say it is essential that we do not permit strip mines to become scattered throughout the east slopes of the Rocky Mountains. They should be located only in corridors near existing transportation facilities; and the club points out that Alberta's known coal reserves will satisfy the projected demand for at least 500 years. Therefore, they feel, there is no need to disturb remote wilderness or land with high recreation potential now.

The first objective, then, of the mining control legislation, must be to ensure that the mines are grouped into a few areas of high utilization.

The second objective, Mr. Hayden said, should be to ensure that no permit to surface mine is issued until it has been established that the affected land has no other short or long term potential of equal value. This will require careful cost-benefit analysis and public discussion.

The brief states that the next objective must be a minimum of environmental damage from the mine and its access roads. Mr. Hayden said that the local Fish and Game agree that "comprehensive environmental planning before the fact" and "responsibility on the resource user" as suggested in the position statement are the keys to meeting this objective. However, he added, prevention of water pollution, and especially siltation, should be given special consideration. "Watershed protection cannot be over-emphasized," he said.

Regulations are only as good as their enforcements, the local association feels. "Effective administration of the act is the fourth objective," Mr. Hayden said.

"We feel that a reclamation board should be established to administer the legislation. It should exist under the department of the environment and should have a majority of members who are expert in forest, land and wildlife management," he said. "The board must NOT be answerable to the department of mines and minerals."

In closing, the brief states, "Our club supports the philosophy, conceptual framework and principles of the proposed legislation. We look forward to an effective act."

A concelebrated funeral mass, by Rev. J. E. McGrane, pastor and Rev. Father Walter Fitzgerald was joined by a full church congregation of relatives, old neighbours and friends who came to pay their last respects to the pioneer woman.

Interment followed in the local church cemetery.

Pall bearers were two grandsons, Jack Stevens and Dennis Fitzgerald and four nephews, Angus McRae, Terry, Mark and Jack Kinsella.

Mrs. McNamara is survived by three children, one son, Leonard of Dawson Creek, B.C.; Mrs. Michael (Margaret) Fitzgerald and Mrs. John (Nora) Stevens, both of Riviere Qui Barre. Three grandchildren Jack Stevens, Dennis Fitzgerald and Miss Patricia McNamara; and three great grandchildren, Catherine

A man walked into a plush hotel in Miami Beach, crossed the lobby and went up to the desk clerk.

He picked up a pen and asked: "What have you got for $20?"

"You're holding it," the clerk replied.

and John J. Stevens and Sean Fitzgerald.

Her husband pre-deceased her in December 1967.

Born Elizabeth Kinsella, in Guelph, Ontario, Mrs. McNamara immigrated to the Dakotas in her early childhood, and arrived in Alberta, with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Kinsella and family in 1902. When the family settled in the Riviere Qui Barre district.

On February 14th, 1906 she became the bride of Thomas J. McNamara a farmer in the district, and they settled on a homestead half mile south of the Hamlet of R.Q.B. They brought up their three children on the farm, and retired in 1958 from active farming, but continued to live close by their daughters and other relatives.

During her years in the community the late Mrs. McNamara was very active in community work, particularly church activities. She was president of the St. Emerance Charter CWL during Father O'Khuyesen's pastorate stay, and prior to Rev. Father MacIntyre coming to the local parish. One of her favorite interests was reading. Blessed with a wonderful memory she, enjoyed entertaining with many good stories, and recalling with accurate details experiences of her early life both in Canada and the States, to her children and grandchildren.

After her husband's death

she continued to live in her little cottage, close to her daughter Margaret, until illness forced her to a long stay in hospital. She entered the Youville Senior Citizens Home on April 1st, 1971 and passed away there on Dec. 22nd.

Decorations added greatly to town's Christmas look

By Rose Marlet

On December 23 the annual judging of the Morinville Christmas Home-Decorating contest, sponsored by the Board of Trade, was held with Mrs. Raymond Gibeau, Mrs. Real Cormier and Mrs. Ed Kryskow as judges.

Christmas theme winners were Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Steffes, with a nativity scene on their front steps. Honorable mentions were given to the home of Mr. and Mrs.

Romuald De Tennacourt, and to the Don Clark mobile home, for this category.

The second prize was won by Mr. and Mrs. Pat Short, who had a wonderful assortment of elves and little animals in fantasy land in the "Imaginative" category of display. The Larry Kramps residence rated an honorable mention in the same class.

The third prize was won by Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Gibeau for the "Effective" display of Santa and his reindeers on their rooftop. The Ed Kryskow home also rated a special mention by the panel of judges for their "Star" display.

The Board of Trade was very pleased with the many well decorated homes in the town and are grateful to the volunteers who worked on this special local project, and who helped to make it the success that it proved to be. Camille Gregoire was chairman of the committee assisted by Maurice Perras, Lou Calder and Ed Brochu.

Uniform supports feed grain stabilization plan

A supplementary cash advance followed by an additional grain delivery quota at a lower (or discounted) initial price was the basis of a new Uniform plan designed to stabilize and improve feed grain returns.

After considerable debate, the resolution was strongly supported by the convention held in Edmonton last week.

The resolution called for the following amendments to the Canadian Wheat Board and Prairie Grain Cash Advance Payments Act:

1) An additional, supplementary cash advance for barley, oats and lower grades of wheat, prior to delivery.

2) Removal of the present $6,000 cash advance calling.

3) Grain producers taking the supplementary cash advance on a certain amount of grain would be obligated to deliver it to the Canadian Wheat Board through a supplementary quota at a lower initial price, when called for by the board.

If, after the use of a supplementary quota plan as outlined above, non-board grain prices continued to fluctuate below CWB pooled prices, two other alternatives were suggested:

1) A quota could be imposed on all non-board grain sales.

2) The Board would offer to purchase (no final payment) all grain at a floor price suggested to be at or below the cost of production.

Through the lower initial price of the supplementary quota the plan attempts to draw Board grain from surplus areas and encourage grain producers in areas short of feed grains, to use their local supplies. Reducing the amount of grain held by surplus producers should reduce the pressure to sell and stabilize and increase non-board prices.

In addition, this should minimize total movements of feed grain and encourage grain to move by rail at low Crows Nest Pass rates.

Calahoo WI holds festive party

by Lix McLeod.

The Christmas meeting of Calahoo Women's Institute was held at Mrs. Roy Schmermund's home with thirteen members and their husbands present. Henry and Joyce Bergtreiser and John and Dana Gropp were visitors.

This pleasant meeting opened with "The Creed" followed by the carol "Silent Night" sung with Marlene Schmermund accompanying on the accordion.

Since it's the vice presidents duty to conduct one meeting a year, members were honored with Betty Albrecht chairing this one, and doing a very capable job.

In the correspondence letters were read from Mr. Menor, and our Sidsford Link in England via Mona Enefer.

The short business session ended to make way for the long-awaited guessing game as to who was the secret pal, who bought gifts and sent cards through the years and now would have her name on Christmas gifts to members.

Some members guessed right but right or wrong everyone enjoyed the fun, and after the gifts were admired, games, birthdays and addresses were put on paper for the draw of "pals" for 1972.

This year members brought gifts for husbands also, and to distribute these a kind of bing was played. Each man picked a parcel, which when opened caused a heap of hilarity for many received a novelty gift.

Friendly visiting over a delectable lunch found every one wishing each other the Blessings of the Festive Season.

The executive planned to meet on Jan. 4th at Mary Dalheim's home to prepare the 1972 program.

Related congratulations to the members of the Jr. High Volleyball team who won the trophy in the Jr. High School Divisional Volleyball Tournament held in West-look before the holidays. The team consists of Angela Knorr, Rachelle Ringuette, Louise Ringuette, Rita Provencal, Mary Ann Despins, Pauline Shank, Jocelyn DeChamplain, Cecile Blanchette, Penny Smok and Claudette Landry.

Mr. and Mrs. Amodee Gagne spent the holiday season in Frenon, St. Marguerite and St. George, Quebec where they visited with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Blanchette celebrated their 25th wedding anniversary on December 29th. The couple attended a mass of Thanksgiving celebrated by Rev. A. Desjardins at Our Lady of Victories Church, Vimy. This was followed by a social evening held in the Community Hall for some 200 guests. Mr. Albert Blanchette was master of ceremonies for the midnight lunch and presented the couple with a purse on behalf of all present. The honored couple have four children, Marie who is a dietary technician at Peace River Municipal Hospital, Agnes, Danny and Vince. Congratulations and best wishes.

We were sorry John and Anna missed the party, but they were attending a wedding.

Spending the Yuletide holidays at Mr. and Mrs. Albert St. Arnaud's home were Mr. and Mrs. Ric Benholm and family from Vancouver.

Speedy recovery wishes extended to Mr. John Zadunyski who is presently hospitalized at the University Hospital. Recently hospitalized at the Immaculate were Conrad, Donald and Darcy Zadunyski and Lynne Laplante.

Winners of the Youth Club raffle were Art St. Arnaud who won the set of tires and the spice rack winner was Albert St. Arnaud.

Expressions of sympathy are extended to the Ringuette families upon Mr. and Mrs. Ernie Ringuette's loss of their young son Trevor.

Saturday night services were highlighted with baptismal services held for Catherine Jose Lusson infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Lusson.

Although the dollar doesn't go very far these days, what it lacks in distance, it makes up in speed.

Gibbons Snow Ball has fun for all

There will be plenty of action and fun for all ages at the "Snow Ball '72" coming up in Gibbons the first weekend in February. Sponsored by the Gibbons Recreation Board, the event will be held at the community centre grounds.

The mid-winter carnival gets underway Friday afternoon with kiddies' races at the rink. A Father and Son hockey game follows at 4 o'clock, and the Gibbons Midgets go into action at six. Friday night is teen night, with a big dance at the hall.

A parade gets things moving on Saturday morning, February 5th, and in the afternoon the action again shifts to the rink, with hockey, broomball and the annual "Oldtimers" game at six o'clock. For those not so good on skates, snow shoe races are planned that afternoon. The adults have their turn in the evening, with a gala dine and dance (closed) featuring the Ken Raskin orchestra.

Sunday morning the snowmobile fans have races and figure skaters take over after lunch, followed by broom ball and snow shoe finals. As for the curlers, they will be going the whole three days in 16-team mixed bonspiel.

The Snow Ball winds up with a bean supper and the crowning of the Snow Queen at 5:30 p.m.

While a child awaits adoption, or his parents' reconciliation, he is a ward of the province. It takes an uncommon amount of love to take a shocked, frightened child into your heart during this troubled time.

The Department of Social Development's "Parents For a While" program consists of people: your neighbors, colleagues, friends. "Parents For a While" are mature persons who respond to the challenge of giving love, understanding, and security to troubled adolescents who need it desperately. They accept and love children who have not yet learned to love. To these people, helping a young life in crisis is more important than considerations of physical disability, teen-age disorientation, or race.

Canfarm Meeting

Canfarm, the computerized accounting system, will be the subject of a meeting to be held at the M.D. building in Morinville at 1:00 p.m. on January 17th (Monday).

Information on the system and services available will be commented on. Additionally you will be taught the basics whereby if you choose to use Canfarm, then you can go into it immediately.

Contact Wally Klatt, District Agriculturist, at Morinville for further information (Ph. 256-3351).

Poultry

Some cooking problems seem to come up periodically, such as questions concerning pie meringue. Frequently asked questions are: How do you get a high, tender meringue or why does my meringue have beads of moisture or why does the meringue slip and slide when cut, etc., etc.? The answers are simple according to the home economist for the Poultry Products Institute. Clip the following and put with your meringue pie recipes and you should be able to make a picture-perfect topping every time.

Allow 2 tablespoons of fine white sugar per Grade A large egg white and add a dash of salt.

Beat egg whites and salt to a stiff froth, gradually add sugar, a teaspoonful at a time, beating thoroughly after each addition until sugar is dissolved.

Beat until the meringue stands in glossy peaks when beater is removed.

Pile lightly on hot pie filling making sure meringue is anchored to the crust on all sides. This helps to keep it from shrinking away from edge of pie. Use at least 3 egg whites for an 8 to 9 inch pie.

Bake in moderately hot oven 350 F. for about 12 minutes or in a hot oven 425 F. for about 4 minutes or until set and delicately browned on peaks.

Meringue may be tested to tell when it is done by carefully inserting a knife into it. The blade will come out practically dry with no white adhering to it when meringue is cooked. If undercooked it will be moist underneath and slip when cut. If overcooked, meringue will be tough and difficult to cut.

Cool and refrigerate. Meringue weeps if not cooked enough. Sugar syrup will "bead" on meringue if too much sugar is used or not beaten until completely dissolved.

Egg whites will not beat up stiff if any yolk or bit of fat gets into them or bowl or beater has any oily film on them.

Five week course on Hog Production

Re-issued by the District Agriculturist's Office.

A five-week hog production course, supported by Canada Manpower, is scheduled to commence at the Vermilion College on Jan. 24. It is intended for anyone planning to start his own operation, to expand his present operation or to find employment on a hog production farm.

The four weeks of classroom study will cover nutrition, breeding systems, hog improvement, disease prevention and herd health programs and the management of farrowing and weaning units. Students will use the college herd for practical experience.

Another section of the course will feature building layout and design and the principles involved in heating and ventilating hog barns. In addition to the above, the course includes a week-long tour of specialized hog farms in Alberta, a packing plant, an R.O.P. testing station, a research station and several feed manufacturers.

The cost of the course is $25 plus $30 to cover field trip expenses. Board and room is $25. Salaries for competent graduates are very attractive with many including some kind of incentive program.

Anyone who is 18 years of age or more and who has a genuine interest in hog production is eligible to enroll in the Vermilion College Hog production course.

Mechanics course may be held

Some requests have been made concerning tractor maintenance whereby instruction would be given on the overhaul and repair of tractors. This course would possibly be held in this district.
